As of 19 February 1948 Asia Films, 51 Canton Road, Shanghai, had four 35 mm movie projectors which the firm does not desire to sell but is willing to lend without charge to any movie house which will show and advertise Soviet films. L. S. Tomashovsky, employee of Asia Films, stated that in this way the firm hopes to make a gain over American competition in new theaters since none of the American companies have this type of equipment and further importation is forbidden.
